MEMO TO AMERICAN COLLEGE AND AMERICAN SOCIETY EMPLOYEES:

As we move along into the month of January, I believe it is important that I provide you with a personnel update relative to the Boettner Research Institute (BRI).

Effective January 1, 1989, Dr. Neal E. Cutler joined The American College faculty as Professor of Gerontology and Social Policy. At the same time, Neal became Director of BRI.

As you know, Neal replaces Dave Gregg who becomes a part-time faculty member with the title of Distinguished Professor of Economics and Gerontology. Dave's new role will recognize him as "Founding Director" of the BRI.

Helen Schmidt, who recently was honored for completing 40 years with the College, will continue on a part-time basis as a Research Associate.

We welcome Neal to our faculty and look forward to Dave's continued participation in faculty meetings and other college activities.
