Dear John:

The tentative appointment with Ken Black and me to talk about Sunny Sol Huebner in a one-hour taped interview on Tuesday afternoon, July 8, in Paris, is on my schedule. Let's definitely plan on that time if it is convenient with Ken.

Will be good to see you.

Cordially,

Davis W. Gregg

Dear Ken and Dave:

I have been reading "The Teacher Who Changed an Industry" by Mildred F. Stone. It does give a lot of background information about Dr. Heubner.

We do want to go ahead and write a rather "personal - human interest story" about Professor Huebner. And, in talking with Howard Blasch about this particular project we both came to the conclusion that the two of you could certainly add a great deal to the finished work.

So, we would like to ask for your participation in a one hour taped interview when we are all in Paris for the International Insurance Seminar. We realize this is a most difficult request because both of you have other responsibilities and appointments to keep. However, we assure you we will limit our visit to exactly one hour.

In checking through the tentative I.I.S. program for Paris we would suggest an appointment for 1:30 to 2:30 P.M. on Tuesday afternoon, July 8th in Mr. Howard Blasch's suite at The Intercontinental Hotel in Paris. Unless we hear differently from you we will consider this a satisfactory time and await your arrival.

We want to mention that the transcript of this visit will go to you for any changes you may want to make before it is offered to major insurance publications throughout the world.

Because of your personal experience with Dr. Huebner and your individual roles as insurance educators known throughout the world, we know your contribution to this particular article will be of great importance and value.

I know that Mr. Blasch joins me in thank you for your consideration. We both hope you will be willing and able to participate in this brief visit.

Very best personal regards.

Cordially yours,

President

John D. Thomas/pm
